

Ursuline College

Free Faculty Lecture Series

February 23 – March 24 – April 20

7:00-8:30pm

Mullen Academic Center, Little Theatre

February 23

Marriage and Family Life in America Today

Gary Polster, Ph.D., Professor of Sociology

Lecture will focus on the changes to the Family unit over the past 30 years including single parent families, non-involved fathers, unmarried cohabitation and the loss of child centeredness.

March 24

The Amish – Spirituality and Folk Medicine

Patricia Sharpnack, MSN, DNP, CNE, Assistant Professor of Nursing

Talk will give insight into the lives of the Old Order Amish of Geauga County, including their spiritual practices and the alternative healthcare choices of this community.

April 20

Religious Allusions

Alana Andrews,

Presentation will works and what

in the Works of Kate Chopin

Adjunct Faculty of Ursuline Studies examine the religious allusions in several of author Kate Chopin's Andrews believes the intended message was for Chopin's readers.

Ursuline

VALUES·VOICE·VISION