2010-2011

Presentations

Baker, J., & Sharpnack, P. (2011, April 1). Health information technology (HIT): What's it all about for nurse educators. OLN Education Summit, Columbus Ohio (podium presentation).

Pennington, R. (2011, March 7). Clinical nurse specialist as facilitator: Implementing a chronic disease management program within the community health setting. Fifth Annual Driving the Future 2011: Rethinking the Link: Driving the Future in Today's Uncertain Healthcare Environment, Cleveland State University, Cleveland, Ohio (refereed poster presentation).

Rogers, K., Goliat, L., & Sharpnack, P. (2011, April). The ABC’s of using hybrid simulation to teach IOM competencies in nursing Leadership course: A-pplying...B-ridging...C-onnecting from classroom to clinical practice. Assessment Technology Institute, National Nurse Educator Summit, Orlando, Florida (poster presentation).

Sharpnack, P., Rogers, K., Goliat, & Baker, J. (2011, April 1). The ABC's of learning using hybrid simulation. OLN Education Summit, Columbus Ohio (poster presentation).

Siedlecki, S. L. (2010, November 5). Exploration of the impact of the professional practice environment on "Failure to Rescue." Celebrating 40 years of the Clinical Nurse Specialist: Reflecting on the past, valuing the present, and building the future. St John’s Conference Center, Plymouth Michigan (invited speaker).

