Ursuline grad feted

The Ursuline College-St. John College Alumnae Association will honor Teri Herrmann Corletzi, class of 1990, with the 2012 Crystal Award. In 1991, the Crystal Award was established and is presented annually to graduates of Ursuline or St. John College who have shown remarkable support, not only to the college, but to the alumnae association as well.

After graduating from Ursuline in 1990 with a bachelor of arts in business administration, Ms. Corletzi earned a master of education in 1998 from Cleveland State University. While attending Cleveland State University, Ms. Corletzi taught undergraduate level health and wellness courses. Then in 1997 she became a real estate sales associate with Kelly & Visconsi Associates. In 2007, Ms. Corletzi became vice president at Aladdin's Eatery Systems, Inc., where she implemented the construction and opening of 10 restaurants in 14 months.

Ms. Corletzi has been an active member of the Ursuline College Alumnae Board since 2000 and has served as board president. In 2008, she also became a member on the college's Board of Trustees.

Currently, she serves as a Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteer (CASA), acting in the role of guardian ad litem by representing the best interest of abused/neglected children. She lives in Chagrin Falls with her husband and son.
