Bohemian culture shines: A rich sample of the Czech contributions to the region's cultural mosaic is on exhibit at Ursuline College, but not for much longer. The showing of Czech paintings, pottery and sculpture — much of it from the collection of the Bohemian National Hall — runs through the end of the month at Wasmer Gallery, 2550 Lander Road, Pepper Pike.

Stephen Sebesta, past president of the Cleveland chapter of the Czechoslovak Society of Arts and Sciences, will speak at a closing reception featuring Czech music and refreshments at 2 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 30. RSVP by calling 216-781-0060 or e-mailing pas@sjs-inc.com.
