The Residence Life Survey asks participants about their experiences while attending Ursuline and living in the residence halls on campus. Participants included 115 students who reside either in Murphy, Grace, or Smith Halls. Based on total residence hall occupancy there was a (61% response rate). Survey summary includes both partial and complete result data.

General Information about the participants
- The majority of survey participants reported that they reside in Grace Hall (60%). 30% reported they live in Murphy Hall and the remaining 10% in Smith Hall.
  - Of the 60% participants that reported living in Grace Hall, 25% of them selected that they were a part of the Nursing Theme area on Grace 3rd floor.
- When asked how many semesters the participants had been living on campus, 50% of respondent’s reports two semesters. The remaining respondents stated 4 semesters (29%), 6 semesters (15%), 1 and 3 Semesters (3%) and 9 or more semesters (1%).

The chart above shows that of the participants that responded, 35% of our resident students do no work any form of job and 65% of our resident students work some sort of job, like work-study or an outside employment.

When asked how frequently do you consume alcohol? 83% of respondent’s reported that they never consume alcohol. 14% admitted to consuming alcohol once a week, and the remaining 3% stated they consume alcohol 2-3 times a week.
Experience Living in the Residence Halls

- When asked I have found someone I can socialize with in my community, 96% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 4% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

- When asked I have found someone I can study with in my community, 87% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 12% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I have a clear understanding of residence hall policy, 96% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 4% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

- When asked I feel safe in my residence hall, 94% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 5% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I feel that the possessions in my room are secure, 96% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 4% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

- When asked I feel accepted by students in my community, 94% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 5% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I am satisfied with my roommate, 82% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 6% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 12% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked Living in the residence halls has exposed me to ideas, opinions and values different from my own, 94% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 4% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked Respect is given to people of different races and ethnicities, 96% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 4% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

- When asked Respect is given to people whose sexual orientation differs from my own, 96% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 3% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked Living in the residence halls has contributed positively to my studies, 87% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 12% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I feel comfortable sharing my opinions and views with members of my community, 87% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 12% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I know and understand the residence hall judicial process, 86% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 12% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 2% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked Living in the residence halls has helped me appreciate differences in others, 93% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 7% disagreed or strongly disagreed.
Experiences/Concerns with Housekeeping and the Staff

- When asked Lounges, hallways and stairwells are cleaned regularly by the housekeeping staff, 92% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 8% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

- When asked I am satisfied with the attitude of the housekeeping staff, 94% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 5% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked I am satisfied with the cleanliness of the bathrooms, 72% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. 27% disagreed or strongly disagreed and the remaining 1% felt this question didn’t apply to them.

- When asked Bathrooms are stocked regularly, 90% of respondents reported that they agreed or strongly agreed. The remaining 10% disagreed or strongly disagreed.

Computer Services

- When asked if you need computer services assistance, are you aware of the Help Desk system and how to go about placing a help desk request? 85% responded YES and the remaining 15% responded NO.

Shuttle Service

- When asked do you have a car on-campus? 56% responded YES and the remaining 44% responded NO.
- When asked did you use the Ursuline Shuttle service this year? 14% responded YES and the remaining 86% responded NO.
- When asked would you utilize this service if it is offered again next year? 46% responded YES and the remaining 54% responded NO.
  - Why would you NOT use the shuttle next year?
    - I have a car or will ride with friends
    - I am too busy with sports
    - Not usually here on the weekends

Programming

- When asked were programs offered on days and at times you that were convenient for you? 75% responded YES and the remaining 25% responded NO.
  - What days and times would you prefer?
    - Weekend evenings or late in the day
    - Some programs earlier in the evenings
    - Monday’s, Tuesday’s and Saturday’s after 4pm

How do you prefer to be notified about upcoming programs and events in the residence halls?

- In the chart above, participants that responded to this question were allowed to pick more than one option. Totals may equal more than 100%.