TPS 588W Mandala Workshop: Weaving Spiritual Traditions

*Chris Reynolds, M.Ed., Education
Sr. Diane Pinchot, OSU, M.A.L.S., M.F.A., Professor of Art*

As we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Ursuline College's presence on this land in Pepper Pike with the creation of a grove of trees in the shape of a mandala, we want to offer this workshop to help further celebrate and update our understanding of how mandalas have been used as cross-cultural symbols of the holistic union of humanity, Earth and the universe for the last 17,000 years. This workshop will focus on making, walking, praying and living out what the mandala means in this 21st century. The participants will be given opportunities to enter into the experience of creating mandalas, telling stories, singing, journaling, making and praying in an outdoor Medicine Wheel or walking our Labyrinth, sitting around the mandala of a table and sharing a meal together.

Friday, October 20: 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Saturday, October 21: 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

$175.00 (One graduate workshop credit)

TPS 588W Pope Francis on Women

Gina Messina, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Religious Studies, Ursuline College

Named Time Magazine's 2015 Person of the Year, boasting an astronomical approval rating of 90% among American Catholics, and more than 12 million Twitter followers, Pope Francis has taken the papacy to a new level. However, Francis' teachings on women often conflict with his message of social justice. This workshop will explore Pope Francis' teachings on women, the ways they relate to his commitment to social justice, and questions regarding gender roles and complementarity that continue to exist.

Friday, December 8: 5:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Saturday, December 9: 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
