I am Ursuline

Alanna Correya

Alanna is a sophomore transfer student from Cuyahoga Community College. As of the fall of 2008, Alanna had been accepted into Ursuline College and the Breen School of Nursing. Since her arrival, Alanna feels that she has truly found her fit. Just this past semester, Alanna had obtained several leadership roles. She served as Secretary Correspondent for both SGA and SUMA (Student United for Multicultural Awareness). Alanna is also a protégé in the AIMS (Academic Inspiration for Multicultural Success) program.

Alanna currently volunteers at St. Augustine Manor and teaches Sunday School for her parish. Alanna has also been selected as one of Ursuline College’s Orientation Arrows for the fall of 2009.

Alanna feels that Ursuline is truly the college for her. Being here has helped her find herself and grow as a woman. Her words to live by:

“Life is a long lesson in humility.”

Rebecca is a first year student in the Nursing program here at Ursuline College. Since her arrival Rebecca has taken Ursuline by storm. She’s currently an active member of Residence Hall Council and SNUC (Student Nurses of Ursuline College), Pink Lady Tour Guide and A.I.M.S (Academic Inspiration for Multicultural Success) Protégé. Rebecca has also been chosen to serve as the co-chair for the 2010 Student leadership Conference in conjunction with the office of student activities. Even beyond her campus involvement Rebecca still finds time to devote to community service projects outside of campus. This summer she will be traveling to Charlotte, North Carolina to partake in a mission trip. In addition, Rebecca has dedicated her past summers to teaching Confirmation at St. Mary in Berea, OH.

When asked what she likes most about Ursuline College Rebecca stated “I love the small classes and the intimate feeling of the campus. Here at UC we are known by name not as a number which makes it that much easier to adjust when coming here. Also I love walking on the labyrinth; it is the most serene place on campus.”

The Office of Multicultural Affairs commends Rebecca on her endeavors and encourages her on continual growth. She has truly immersed herself in all that Ursuline has to offer. Rebecca Bitalla can truly say I AM URSULINE.
