

CARES Act Higher Education Emergency Relief (HEERF) Grant Application

The COVID-19 HEERF Grant fund helps currently enrolled students with unexpected costs incurred due to the disruption of campus operations during the pandemic. Complete this application to apply for funds - the deadline is Wednesday, May 20th. Grant requests will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Please be aware that funding is limited, therefore maximum grant amounts will depend on need and the number of applications received. Verification of expenses submitted for a grant may be requested.

Who is eligible for HEERF Funds?

Per the US Department of Education, in order to be eligible for consideration of funding, the student must:

- Have been enrolled in a degree-seeking program as of March 13, 2020.
- Have a 2019-20 or 2020-21 FAFSA on file at the college at the time this application is reviewed.
(Visit studentaid.gov to complete and file a FAFSA if you haven't already done so.)
- Be a US citizen or resident alien
- Have experienced a financial hardship as a result of the disruption of education due to the coronavirus.

Funds are not available to non-resident alien students, non-degree students, and to students who were already enrolled exclusively in online classes before 3-26-2020.

Note for undergraduate students: If your family's financial circumstances have changed due to a change in income, please complete the 2020-21 Special Circumstance Form after June 30th – the form is available at <https://www.ursuline.edu/cost-aid/financial-aid-forms>.

Certification

I understand that there are limited emergency funds. Submission of this application does not guarantee receipt of a grant or the full grant amount requested on this application. All decisions of grant awards are final. I certify that all answers and information provided in this application are complete, true, and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that I may be requested to submit documentation of the expenses listed above. Submission also certifies that requested funds are for only for the applicant's unexpected expenses related to COVID-19. If a grant is awarded, a check for the amount approved will be mailed to the student at the address provided on this application. The student will receive an email when the check is issued.
