2019-2020 SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCE APPLICATION
INDEPENDENT STUDENTS

Student Name: _______________________________________________  Student ID: __________________________

At Ursuline, we know that a college education is one of the best investments one can make, and financing a college education is an important concern for nearly every student. Sometimes families experience special circumstances, which affect their ability to finance a college education that has not been captured or accurately reflected through the federal financial aid application process.

The federal aid formula used to determine need now uses tax information from two years’ prior to measure need. We understand this assessment can increase the possibility of significant changes to family situations because of the year lag time.

We ask that you complete this form, and attach appropriate documentation and details about the nature of your special circumstance so that we may best understand and act upon your request. We can then determine if updating your FAFSA application with this new information will impact aid eligibility, allowing adjustments to your federal and/or state financial aid. Please note: We cannot respond to anticipated changes, wait until the changes occur before submitting. Your request may not result in an increase of your financial aid eligibility. Decisions are final and further appeals will be reviewed only if new information or circumstances arise.

The following documents are required to be submitted before your appeal will be reviewed. Do not submit your appeal until you have all required documents.

- Detailed explanation of your situation with documentation
- 2017 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) for Student and Spouse (if data retrieval not used on FAFSA)
- All additional required documentation listed for your circumstances
