

CALL FOR RESEARCH PROPOSALS

Apply for up to $500 in Funding to Showcase your Research!

Sponsored by the Women's Center

Undergraduate and graduate students of all majors are invited to apply.

What Counts as "Research"?

Further development of a class assignment OR an academic project outside of coursework (e.g., empirical study, conceptual article, literature review, argumentative essay, digital project, etc.)

How Do I Showcase My Work?

All awardees are expected to share their work publicly at Ursuline's spring research symposium or at a comparable academic forum (e.g., regional conference) within a year of receiving funding.

Benefits of Funding and Sharing My Research?

- Hone your expertise in your area of interest in your chosen major or field
- Strengthen your oral and written communication skills when preparing to present your work
- Network and connect with other students or faculty in your field
- Build up your academic/professional resume
